Lions To Install New Officers

Observations.

Parents who allow their children to have BB guns should watch how they use them. . . We have received reports of children shooting out street lights in certain neighborhoods. . . This may seem like a lot of fun to the kids while they are doing it, but it can certainly be dangerous play. . . If your child is responsible, please, for the safety of everyone concerned, take the gun away from him. . . You will be saving yourself a lot of grief and expense. . .

We have only one more request to make of our City Fathers. . . Every day of the week, we see how many people are enjoying our little sand beach. . . In fact, we marvel at the number of tourists who stop here and use this little strip when Pans Christi has so much more beach. . . But, it is true, this is quite a drawing card this summer. . . Can't something be done to provide a public bath house and a pier or two for their convenience. . . We have heard rumors that something will be done about a pier after the old bridge is torn down. . . It will be a nice addition to the beach. And yes, while we are on the subject of the beach, can't something be done about the parking situation on Carol Avenue as it makes it a little difficult for cars coming up Carroll and those turning this street to get by, where cars park right to the corner. . .

In this week's issue of the ECHO the City has published an Ordinance with reference to the use of water for sprinkling lawns, etc. . . The engineers have notified the officials that enough water is used to supply 15,000 people, and there are only 5,000 residents in Bay St. Louis. . . Read this ordinance carefully, because it may save you a fine. . .

The Bay Juniors will play in Pelican Stadium Friday night before the Pelican's game. . . They will meet St. Claude's Hardware. . . The local team has won five games and lost three during this season. . . A motorcycle will be formed to follow the boys to New Orleans. . . Everyone is invited to join the group. . .

We want to congratulate the Chamber of Commerce and all participating organizations for the splendid success of the Fourth of July celebration. . . From all reports, everyone had a wonderful time. . .

Fishing Licenses Expire

Fishermen were reminded by Eugene Fly, Director of Conservation, that their fishing licenses expired June 30. Both sports fishermen and commercial fishermen are required to have new license after that date. . .

"There have been no changes in fishing regulations since last year," Fly said. "Both licenses and creel limits remain the same. Any resident between the ages of fourteen and sixty-five, fishing with artificial bait, must have a license. Any non-resident fishing in Mississippi by any method must have a license. . .

A new digest of sport fishing, hunting and trapping laws and regulations has been prepared and copies will be given to sportsmen at the time they buy their licenses. Also, a digest of commercial fishing laws and regulations has been prepared for distribution to commercial fishermen when they buy their new licenses. . .

Residents of the state will pay $3.25 for a combination hunting and fishing license, or $1.25 for a fishing license only. Non-residents may procure three-day fishing permits for $1.25, or fishing licenses good for a year for $5.25. Licenses will be sold at the sheriff's offices and by bonded agents. Game wardens are not authorized to sell licenses. . .

Anglers are allowed a daily limit of fifteen black bass, fifteen striped bass, twenty crappie or white perch, and twenty-five bream or sunfish. There is a daily total limit of 50 fishes of all game species. There is no creel limit on catfish, carp, buffalo or other gross species taken with legal equipment. . .

Mr. and Mrs. John Hotstream announce the birth of their eighth child on fourth son Friday, July 3, at the King's Daughters hospital at 11:30 p. m. . .

"Sgt. and Mrs. D. E. Helms, nee Violet Arceneaux, announce the birth of a son, Robert, July 6, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arceneaux Sr., he weighed seven pounds, seven ounces. . .

John W. Bryan Sr. Buried In Virginia

He was 77 years of age at the time of his death and was active in the Paul Murphy Chess Club and civic affairs in New Orleans and Bay St. Louis. . .

Mr. Bryan represented Cone Export and Commission Company in New Orleans until 1945 when he retired from active participation in business. . .

He is survived by his wife, Blanche Jaubert Bryan; two sons, John W. Bryan Jr., and James J. Bryan, all of New Orleans; and two sisters, Mrs. E. B. Jones and Mrs. W. L. Allen of Norfolk, Virginia. . .

Mr. Bryan was prominent in local wholesale and textile circles for over 40 years and was widely known in Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and Georgia in his capacity with the Cone Export and Commission Company being responsible for the organization of several wholesale textile houses in each of those states. . .

Interment was in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia, following services in New Orleans. . .

Honorary pallbearers were Fortune Jaubert Jr., Dr. S. M. Blackshear, Joseph W. Allen, S. M. Mullins, A. K. Roy and Albert L. Mirandona, New Orleans and Herman and Ben Come of Gretna, North Carolina; and Sol Dribben of New Orleans. . .

Returns From Polio Workshop
Despite encouraging progress in polio research, all communities must be on the alert and fully prepared to cope with polio outbreaks this summer. . .

Mrs. Tudury has just returned from a workshop meeting of volunteers of National Foundation county Chapters in Memphis, Tennessee, where problems and progress in the polio fight were reviewed with Basil O'Connor, President of the March of Dimes organization, and other polio officials. . .

Volunteer polio workers were present from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee. . .

Emphasizing that no polio vaccine is ready for use this summer and that gamma globulin, the blood derivative found effective as a temporary preventive of paralytic polio, is in critically short supply, Mrs. Tudury reported that: . .

"Polio probably will present much the same problems this summer as in the recent past." She pointed out that national incidence of the disease this year is already running about 25 per cent ahead of the same period in 1952—which was the worst year in recorded polio history, with 57,628 cases reported across the country. . .

"Fortunately," she added "we are all so much more aware of polio symptoms these days that we can count on early diagnosis and prompt treatment. And many cases will be suspected or non-paralytic ones which often can be diagnosed and treated just as well in their own homes as in hospitals. . .

The treatment trend today emphasizes certain advantages of home care for such patients, especially those living near treatment centers, Dr. Landauer explained. . .

"With the aid of a consultant, if necessary, the family physician or ten can diagnose and care for these patients at home, sparing them the fatigue, nervous tension and excitement brought on by hospitalization," she added. "Home care avoids the psychological disadvantages of separation from the family and the difficult adjustment to a strange environment. And, most important, it eases the strain on hospitals during epidemic periods, releasing beds and professional trained personnel more urgently needed to care for the really serious cases." . .

Library Move Gets Underway

These are moving days for the City-County Memorial Library. Interior paint at the new building is being freshened, bookshelves and books are being moved in by the truck load, and shrubbery is being trimmed and carted away. . .

Every day sees the arrival of additional checks at the postoffice as the snowball of public interest rolls larger and larger. Anyone who intends to add his contribution toward financing this worthwhile enterprise, is urged to do so today. . .

This week's contributions include the following, to whom the board expresses its thanks: . .

A. C. Mitchell, Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, is shown administering the oath of office to John A. Seafide, recently-elected Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, and re-elected Commissioners J. Cyril Glover and Sylvan J. Ladner Jr. . .

These officials, who assumed office Monday, July 6, have re-appointed Dan M. Russell Jr. as City Attorney; Alcine Saudier, chief of police; F. J. Bopp, City Auditor; Warren Traub, Superintendent of the Natural Gas System; and Albert Monti Sr., superintendent of the Water Works Department. . .

Crump Employs English Gardener

The training of cucumbers up a support and keeping a single plant throughout provides more fruit per plant and of a higher quality. . .

"In Southern England we have two types of cucumbers," stated J. R. Tiddens, Hagar Gardens at Holly Bluff on the Jordan. He further stated that the two types are ridge and greenhouse cucumbers. The ridge cucumbers are grown in the same manner as here in South Mississippi with one or two cultural differences. . .

"The greenhouse is the one I am using," he stated, training it up a support and keeping a single plant throughout. . .

When the plant starts to produce laterals a watch is kept and as soon as a female flower appears on the lateral, the growing point is pinched out leaving one leaf after the female flower. From the axil of this leaf another shoot will be produced, again a female flower is set and the growing point is removed as before. In this manner the plant does not support any surplus growth, maintaining only those shoots which bear the fruit. Mention has been made of the necessity to remove the male flowers. If a female flower is pollinated the strength from the plant not only goes into the seed but the plant will soon cease to bear. If no pollination takes place the fruits will swell rapidly and other fruits will also be produced. The importance of removing male flowers can thus be seen. To sum up, a cucumber required a rich cool, moist root run. Good drainage, plenty sunlight, ventilation, plus the two important factors of removing male flowers and keeping the laterals pinched out. Additional root will be made if rich soil is heaped up around the stem every two to three weeks, hereby making the plant more productive. One plant kept strictly to this system will easily produce 35 to 40 fruits. The terminal growing point is never pinched out. A good fruit is smooth and firm to the touch, has a mild flavor, and is crisp and juicy. . .

Mr. Tiddens, a Graduate Horticulturist at the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew, Surrey, England, came to the United States in March of this year to be head gardener at Holly Bluff on the Jordan. . .

Wednesday features, besides continued meetings, a full day of livestock judging, tours and demonstrations. . .

A 4-H Club tractor operators' contest will be held Wednesday from 8 to 10 a. m. in an area adjacent to the farm machinery exhibits. This contest will establish the second place state winner from among district winners. First place state winner was determined during the recent State 4-H Club Congress. . .

For visitors staying longer than one day, dormitory rooms will be provided at 75 cents a night for each adult and 50 cents a night for each child. Bring bed linen, pillow, towels, soap and other needed toilet articles. . .

Local information about Farm and Home Week, with plans for travel pools in many counties, can be had from any Extension Service county agent or home demonstration agent, or from the nearest teacher of vocational agriculture. . .

Attending from Hancock County will be Miss Sarah Weaver, Mrs. J. P. Rousseau, Mrs. Gerald Tucker, Howard Simmons and others. . .

DA Sets Curfew On Line "Joints"

In an agreement that does not apply to Hancock County in general but only to the area around the Pearl River-Hancock County line, District Attorney Boyes Holleman and police operators near the line agreed upon a curfew restriction last week. All establishments close on Sundays, all day, open at 9:00 a. m. and close at 11:00 p. m. on week days and open at 9:00 a. m. on Saturdays, closing at 12:00 p. m. . .

Last week at Justice of the Peace Court held in Aaron Academy school, juke operators are reported to have sought Holleman's advice. . .

Ely Alsobrooks, Hancock County constable who has been charged with assault and battery with the intent to kill W. C. Jarrell on June 9 at the Three Oaks club, waived preliminary hearing to the session of the Grand Jury to be held in September term of Circuit Court. . .

Martha Woods, operator of the Three Oaks Club who was charged with possession of whiskey and no beer and wine licenses, paid a fine at court of $100 and cost of Court. . .

Charges of assault and battery, resisting arrest, disturbing the peace and use of profane language were passed to the files by Holleman in charges brought against Jarrell by Constable Alsobrooks who shot Jarrell in the leg when he resisted arrest. . .

According to Morris Gibson, employee at the club, he stated on the stand that the night of raids on county line juke by Sheriff John Egloff and deputies, the whiskey which was behind the counter of the establishment was purchased from a Bay St. Louis dealer on the day of the raids. . .

In a statement concerning the curfew imposed upon the county line establishments, Holleman said that it is not his intention to deprive anyone of the legal right of earning a living. He added that "if they cooperate and show a substantial amount of effort to maintain orderly places, I think that padlocking procedures can be avoided; but if the clubs along the Pearl River-Hancock county line fail to cooperate, I can and will resort to other means." . .

The District Attorney stated that it is his belief that this is the first time Hancock County has had a good "clean up" on the north end in over 20 years. . .

With only a few hours of time used and at a cost of less than $200,000, the American Legion has just over 100 "Welcome" signs to the city.

Possibly a later has seen some of the "Welcome" signs of the American Legion, and has been informed that the American Legion's facilities are just that. No charge of any kind is made to anyone. The general public and particularly visitors, are invited to use them. Service to the community and nation is one of the prime objectives of the American Legion. In the interest of community welfare and growth, the Legion placed these signs in an attempt to welcome visitors to stop and play in Bay St. Louis. We feel that the future growth of Bay St. Louis depends on its development as a RESORT. An open and friendly welcome must be given to encourage visitors.

Even though Bay St. Louis is the County Seat of Hancock County it is none the less a distant suburb of New Orleans. We must cater to New Orleans visitors and make all visitors welcome. We have first chance at New Orleans holiday, and we must see that we have some inducement for them to stop in Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. These visitors mean dollars and development to the city.

The American Legion's free facilities are open to the public. Bay St. Louis has a city beach, Clearmont Harbor and Waveland have municipal piers. These are fine, but there are miles of beach that can be cleaned and used to encourage visitors.

Jackson's Ridge should be cleaned by the County every Monday at least. Public comfort stations should be placed at this point. A

County Agent's Notes

By HOWARD SIMMONS

MAINTAIN EGG QUALITY
There just is no market for a bad egg. During this hot weather reaches the consumer is a very important job.

Here are some helps: Gather the eggs two or three times a day. This helps keep the eggs clean and allows you to cool them, but more quickly. Make sure that the nesting material is clean. Provide enough nests for the number of hens.

Spread the eggs out so that air can get all around them. A frame made by using a frame covered with one-inch poultry netting or hardware cloth makes a good egg cooler. After cooling them out, keep them cool and take them to town and market at least twice a week.

Your market depends on people buying eggs. Just a few bad eggs can drastically cut consumer demand for eggs. You don't want bad eggs and neither do the town people. So keep egg quality good and keep your market.

Remember, the egg was good when the hen laid it. It is up to you to keep it that way until you sell it. Keep them cool and they will stay good.

FARM AND HOME WEEK

Next week is the time, Mississippi State College, the place, for the biggest and best Farm and Home Week ever held. Make your plans to be there. The days are next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 14-16.

Go for a day, or go for the entire three day event. Anyway go to Mississippi State College for Farm and Home Week, July 14-16. You will be glad you went.

SUMMER TRACTOR CARE

If possible use clean, clear rain-water to fill the tractor radiators. Continued use of water containing iron or lime will coat the surfaces and block radiator passages.

Keep the radiator fins cleaned out. Insects, dirt, straw or other materials against and between radiator fins interfere with cooling.

Among causes of tractor motor overheating are fan belt slippage, poor carburetor adjustment, ignition timing and carbon deposits on cylinder heads.

Keeping an extra fan belt, radiator hose and connections and pump padding are handy to have around to keep that tractor working.

CONSERVE MOISTURE

Droughts cannot be prevented but good land and proper management can greatly reduce their crop damage.

To help insure crops against drought damage plant each acre to the crops best suited for it. Do not try to grow row crops on land best suited to sod crops. Increase the organic matter in the soil so that it will absorb and hold more water.

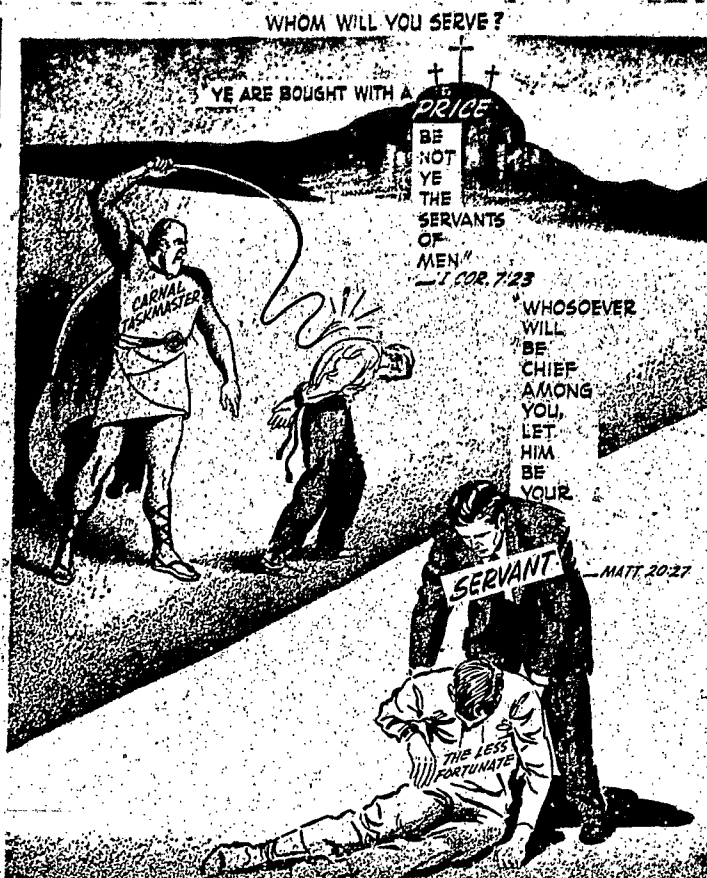

Use crop rotations that include more sod crops to trap rainfall and store it in the soil for future use. Control run-off water by spreading it onto meadows and pastures or by storing it in farm ponds.

drinking fountain should be erected. This is State land but the necessary permission could be obtained for its use without difficulty. Such a natural picnic ground could be a great asset to the County instead of a smelly unhealthy spot.

Picnic grounds should be made available to local citizens as well as to visitors on North Beach. (Continued on next page)

SOIL CONSERVATION Joint Installation Planned

REPORT
Alfred E. Smith, Sellers School Community, Cooperator with Hancock County Soil Conservation District, harvested 100 pounds of Bahia grass seed last week. Smith harvested the seed from a five acre patch which he established during 1949. For four years Smith has supplied farmers cooperating with the district, seeds to establish summer and fall pastures. Smith top dressed the Bahia grass with 40 pounds of Nitrogen for a second seed harvest.

James L. Crump, Kiln Community, on the Jordan River, another cooperator with the Soil Conservation District, harvested 1200 pounds of Rescue grass seed. Crump, planted rescue grass for winter grazing, then withdrew livestock, topdressed with 40 pounds Nitrogen per acre for seed harvest. Crump will sell the Rescue grass seed to Soil Conservation District cooperators at wholesale prices, in order to help establish more seed patches in the district.

Alfred Wittorf, Cooperator, Leetown Community, helped H. C. Voornhis, Cooperator, Rock Hill Community harvest 800 pounds of Reseeding Crimson Clover seed. Seed will be sold to Cooperators of the District.

Floyd Griffith, Fred C. Taylor, Cooperators, Texas Flat road, are busy clipping pastures. Recent rains has helped these pastures to produce an abundance of good grazing for their livestock.

Coney E. Weston, Cooperator, farm located 3 miles west of Kiln on the Jordan River constructed a W-ditch. The W-ditch drains wet land which will be planted in Ky 31 Fescue and White Clover this fall. Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting Hancock County Soil Conservation District assisted Weston to survey and stake W-ditch.

Weston top dressed Bahia grass and Coastal Bermuda pasture with 30 pounds of Nitrogen last week. Coastal Bermuda and Bahia grass withstood the recent dry weather and provided excellent grazing Weston reported.

James R. Addington, Cooperator, Pine Vista Plantation in the Catfish community is well pleased with his vegetated water disposal areas, which was established to oats and Bahia grass last

EXCESS PROFITS FIGHT

A test of strength between the two most powerful committees of the House was avoided at the last moment last week and there was relief on all sides that the issue was not pressed to a knock-down-and-drag-out showdown.

The question involved was whether the Congress should be given an opportunity to accept or reject President Eisenhower's proposal to continue for six months the excess profits tax. This tax was scheduled to expire on June 30 of this year. The tax had been attacked in many quarters as being inequitable and as penalizing aggressive, new, growing businesses. The Administration spokesmen did not defend the funds it brought in, but insisted that it should be continued until December 31, when the 10 percent increase in personal income taxes brought on by the Korean war is slated to die.

Chairman Reed of the Ways and Means Committee contended, however, that the excess profits tax should be allowed to expire as scheduled and further, that the expiration date of the Korean increase in personal income taxes should be moved forward to June 30. When it became apparent that there were sufficient votes in the Ways and Means Committee to override him and bring out the excess profits tax, Reed announced that there would be no further meetings of the committee. Even after a personal appeal from President Eisenhower, he refused to give his committee an opportunity to vote on the matter. The House Republican leadership then determined to resort to the unprecedented course of by-passing the

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall are visiting relatives in Texas.

Mrs. Louise (Bess) Cuevas

Ways and Means Committee by asking the Rules Committee to grant a rule taking the bill from Reed's committee and bringing it before the House. Over the bitter protest of Ways and Means Committee Chairman Reed that this was a usurpation of his authority, the Rules Committee at the end of a five hour session and by a divided vote made the excess profits tax in order.

Over the weekend lines became sharply drawn. The merits of continuing the excess profits tax were lost in the shadow of the scheduled battle of the giants between the two committees. In this tense atmosphere Majority Leader Halleck rose on the floor of the House and announced that the rule would not be called up after all but that the Ways and Means Committee would be given another chance to report out the bill.

RULES COMMITTEE'S ROLE

Personally we favored a compromise in the dispute, over procedure and offered a motion in the Rules Committee to make in order Reed's bill to cut personal income taxes effective June 30 with a proviso that the excess profits tax could be submitted as an amendment thereto. Since the Ways and Means Committee had reported Reed's Bill, that the Committee would thereby have thought of the vast improvement in hospital services during the past few years. This means better health for you. New inventions, techniques, and drugs, plus the increased skill of physicians and surgeons have made dread diseases less dangerous to mankind. This has added vastly to the expense of hospital care. Since hospital bills have to be paid promptly the problem that confronts us when serious illness comes is a difficult one.

Fortunately, this problem is easily solved - it is quite simple to figure that, one out of ten people will be hospitalized this year - that the average bill will be so much - that the average family has 4 members and that to protect a family in the Blue Cross Plan small, regular payments, when well, will do the job - thus providing maximum coverage at minimum cost over a period of years making it easy for everyone to have worry-free hospital care when needed.

This system is made available to you through your own hospital and its chosen Plan - Blue Cross. July 13th is the last day for individuals to join during the current enrollment drive.

The only way for a producer looking for gas or oil to know "what's down there" — for sure — is to drill. So he'll spend $100,000 ... and often many times that amount ... to drill a single exploratory well. Nationally, the odds against getting a producer in a wildcat area are eight to one. And in Mississippi they are 24 to one — 24 dry holes for every producer discovered in exploratory areas.

It costs money ... big money ... to locate new supplies of natural gas so this premium fuel will continue to be available to you and the great industries of the Gulf South.

The natural gas industry can and will continue to bring in more wells and discover more fields, so long as natural gas sells at prices sufficient to provide the incentive to find and produce, transport and distribute this matchless fuel.

Actually ... and we think you'll agree ... natural gas is the biggest bargain in your home today. It's worth every cent you pay for it
... and then some!

Highway 90, now under construction, thence in a westerly direction along a line parallel with the said northerly boundary of the said highway right of way, to a point 1000 feet distant from Front Street or North Beach Boulevard, measured at right angles to said street or boulevard; thence northerly and north-westerly, parallel to and along 1000 feet from said Front Street or North Beach Boulevard to the corporation line of the City of Bay Saint Louis, being the range line between Ranges 14 and 13 West; thence North along said range line in the first channel in the Bay of Saint Louis; thence following said channel, easterly and southerly, to the place of beginning, (except where therefrom the land lying between a line 139 feet North of the north margin of Uman Avenue and a line 127 feet south of the south margin of Uman Avenue.)

SECTION 1: Be it Ordained by the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the City of Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi, That said Mayor and Board of Commissioners find and adjudge that said City of Bay Saint Louis is a municipality existing in Hancock County, Mississippi, having a population in excess of 1000 inhabitants, and that said Mayor and Board of Commissioners constitute the legislative body of said municipality and are empowered under the provisions of the Laws of Mississippi including Title 16 of the Mississippi Code of 1942, to regulate the height, numbers of stories and size of buildings and other structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied; the size of yards, courts and other open spaces; the density of population; and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, residence or other purposes; and that it is necessary and to the best interest of the city in order to lessen congestion in the streets; to secure safety from fire, panic and other dangers; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the over-crowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks and other requirements, and having consideration, among other things, to the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and property and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout such municipality; that the authority in said Mayor and Board of Commissioners under said laws of Mississippi, including Title 16 of the Mississippi Code of 1952, be exercised, and enforced as to the area within the corporate limits of said municipality hereinafter described and that the use and conditions of use and occupancy of land for trade, industry, residence, and other purposes within such area be regulated within said area.

The Mayor and Board of Commissioners further find and adjudge that the area hereinafter described is one of the two largest and most exclusive residential sections of the City of Bay Saint Louis; that a new highway bridge across Bay Saint Louis (which forms part of U. S. Highway No. 90, the most important highway serving said city), is being constructed in said area at a new location; and it has come to the attention of the Mayor and Board of Commissioners that certain persons are planning to build and operate commercial ventures in said area, which if permitted, will be highly detrimental to the best interests of said city and especially of the area hereinafter described. The Mayor and Board of Commissioners further find and adjudge that the adoption of a comprehensive zoning ordinance for all said city is under consideration by said Mayor and Board of Commissioners but that considerable delay necessarily be incurred before the same can be finally enacted, and that if the zoning regulations contained in this ordinance are not adopted and enforced in the said described area before said comprehensive zoning ordinance can be finally adopted, the said objectionable commercial ventures will be established therein and irreparable damage will result therefrom, and for that reason and the other reasons recited herein, this ordinance should be adopted and enforced without delay.

SECTION 2: That it shall be unlawful, upon any lot or piece of ground within the boundaries of the area hereinafter set forth, to erect, construct, reconstruct, or to enlarge any filling station, tourist camp, or any building or structure to be used of any business, trade, industry, or commerce or to conduct any such business, trade, industry, or commerce in any building or structure so constructed; or to place, erect, construct, or cause to be placed, erected or constructed, any sign, billboard or poster (except for rent or for sale signs; and/or the construction and erection by the City of Bay Saint Louis of any sign, which advertises the said City) and prohibiting the operation for tourists, transients or the public generally, directly or indirectly, a parking space for hire, in the area within said City described as follows:

S. Highway 90, now under construction, along a line parallel with the said northern boundary of the said highway right of way, to a point 1000 feet distant from Front Street or North Beach Boulevard, measured at right angles to said street or boulevard; thence northerly and north-westerly, parallel to and along 1000 feet from said Front Street or North Beach Boulevard to the corporation line of the City of Bay Saint Louis, being the range line between Ranges 14 and 13 West; thence North along said range line in the first channel in the Bay of Saint Louis; thence following said channel, easterly and southerly, to the place of beginning, (except where therefrom the land lying between a line 139 feet North of the north margin of Uman Avenue and a line 127 feet south of the south margin of Uman Avenue.)

No tourist cottages shall be erected east margin of Beach Boulevard

Bay St. Louis has a Youth Center. This is not open to the public, but it could be open to visitors at least once a week to allow them to get acquainted with the local youths. Dances should be held at least once a week at the City Hall Park, open to teenagers and adults alike. Cost of a string band could be paid from the sale of soft drinks. Fun and recreation must be furnished if we are to stop the dollars from flowing out through Hancock County.

Adverse publicity must be replaced with more and more overtures of welcome to visitors. Friendliness is a small price to pay for the return of thousands of dollars to the community.

The above mentioned are only a few of the many possibilities to make Bay St. Louis attractive to visitors. The American Legion is anxious to help develop these possibilities. We feel that the American Legion is willing and can do much for Bay St. Louis through co-operation with other civic-minded organizations. We do not shun leadership nor do we wish to supplant other credited organizations actively working for the advancement of Bay St. Louis. We will continue in our efforts to help build and develop Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. We invite ideas and opinions on this subject.

(Signed) Lucien Kidd.

In reality it is just tect for those people livin the highway because the parts that come under this nance are mostly residents have little room left for bu es to build... Is this fair? Other property owners in E Louis pay their taxes as w the people from deMontuiz nue to Cedar Point, who property within the first feet of these streets...
